

Inaugural 2 Competitions for October:

The CCP Goes Global!...Globe-Trotting That is!

By Tony D. Lilles

In lieu of the cancelled OTSes this year we embarked on the first competitions held for October, ever. This is usually the month to judge the Pictures of the Year from the past 9 months but due to the ongoing pandemic, all the OTSes were cancelled (and we usually have 4 OTSes per year). Instead, we had not just one but two competitions due to the limited time we had to close the fiscal year and fulfill the usual roster of medals and awards reserved for these OTS competitions. Quite a rush if you think about it since we entrusted it to the members to look thru their files or shoot within their bubble to ensure their safety due to lingering high Covid infections and considering losing a dear member, Master Rey Ortiz to Covid (see tributes in pages attached), a day before submission the October 5 deadline. The Board had to make a last-minute decision to continue the competition because we felt that Master Rey would have had us unceremoniously continue, no matter what. This is in reference to his known positive attitude that a "show must go on" and professional mantra that deadlines must be kept. So, into our bodegas we dug and, low and behold, participants did not come short and displayed their global collection of photos here and abroad. A review of the winning entries here is a globe-trotting review of the travels of the members of the CCP.

Mobile Device, Color, Global:

Cellphone Cameras: Getting to know you!

By Tony D. Lilles

Veteran judges Edwin Tuyay (Faculty, PCCI Training Center), Nikon Photographer Japs Ramiscal, Canon Advertising & Marketing Consultant Aron Garcia, and wedding photographer Ole Maniquis, were so impressed that such a crop of entries could only come from mobile devices and cellphones. Combinations of travel photos dominate the winning roster but there were honorable efforts for macro (Bob Sison's 6th Place best photo, 2nd Place Photographer of the Month) and graphic details (Jimmy Hermogenes' 8th Place). This auxiliary competition that really became an additional mobile challenge did not disappoint. It is now apparent that members shoot with mobile devices alongside their favorite cameras wherever they go but a good number seem to be shooting more with their cellphones to capture moments in the spur of the moment. Sometimes, the cellphone is simply quicker to the draw (and lighter to wield) than a camera especially when capturing a moment on the go (or a trek). This mimics the revered but cancelled OTSes wherein we draw on the spontaneity of a moment wherever one is and to capture art on-the-go. Tito Santos wins 3rd Best Photo and climbs the Master Cup by 3 places with his Venice travel capture. Jun Garrido won 2nd Best Photo and climbed 4 places in the Master Cup. The Best Photo goes to this author. Tony Lilles' clown fish, peeking through while hiding and dwarfed by its habitat (a sea anemone) was taken with a Samsung S9+ in an underwater, scuba housing taken in a scuba dive in Anilao, Mabini, Batangas Province. Evan Grabador becomes Photographer of the Month by winning Best Photos for 4th and 7th Place. Honorable mention goes to Fred del Rosario (4th Place Photographer of the Month) who made the biggest leap in the Master Cup: A whopping 7 places up! Likewise, this dynamic duo seems to always make it to the top ten whenever they join: Gino Garbanzos and Manette Benitez are 7th and 9th Place, Best Photographers of this Mobile Device competition.

Camera, B&W, Global: Honoring the Late Master Rey Ortiz with his 2022 Calendar Challenge!

by Tony D. Lilles

In making this competition in B&W (to replace an OTS), we are honoring the late CCP Calendar Production Director in Rey Ortiz who was clamoring for more B&W entries last month to perennially satisfy the requirements in making a bonafide B&W calendar befitting his stringent artistic standards. Almost all the winning members were present, and the Zoom Meeting became interactive! A first in the sense that each winning member was able to talk about and describe how, when, and where they took their winning shots. Rudy de Leon (3rd Place Best Photo and 5th Place Photographer of the Month) was the only winner absent but we recognize that his winning shots were from the OTS in Bali and Batanes. I'm sure Rey Ortiz was in our Zoom meeting in spirit and would've been proud of our entries as these fulfill the 2022 Calendar requirements of 36 photos by the top 36 in the final Master Cup Standings. Evan Grabador's 2 entries won 1st and 7th Places in Best Photo, becomes Photographer of the Month and raises his lead to solidify his standing in the Master Cup to become the Master Photographer for this year. Armand Apuya's 2 entries from Hokkaido won 4th and 9th Places in Best Photo, becomes 2nd Place Photographer of the Month. Adel Samson won 7th Place Best Photo and is 3rd Place Photographer of the Month and climbs up 2 places in the MC standings. Honorable mention goes to Joey Antonio (3rd Place Best Photo and 4th Place Photographer of the Month). He is the only other participant alongside Evan and Adel to be in the top 10 winners in both competitions and climbed up the MC Cup by 2 places. Final note is with the Late Master Rey Ortiz: Even without joining this last 2 competitions, he places 27th in the MC Cup and remains in the 2022 Calendar which will be dedicated to him.
